The Piracy Project

call for contributions

We would like to invite you to develop and contribute a book to The Piracy Project, an international publishing and exhibition project exploring the philosophical, legal and practical implications of book piracy and creative modes of reproduction. We will give an introduction to the project, workshops and a series of talks and discussions on authorship, originality, open source production and issues around copyright.

To receive updates or to learn more about how to contribute please send an email with subject line "The Piracy Project" to and.publishing@csm.arts.ac.uk

The Piracy Project is run by Andrea Francke, Lynn Harris and Eva Weinmayr and is part of The Library Project, an immediate response by students, tutors and AND publishing to the financial problems faced by the Byam Shaw School of Art library.
